	(k) there has been a change in your family circumstances
	(l) there is, or has been, a natural disaster
	(m) an unexpected event or unforeseen change has reduced your income
	(n) an unexpected event or unforeseen change has increased your expenditure

(o) there is some other reasonable cause.
7 You believe that you will be able to pay if we agree:
(a) to allow you more time to pay a bill
(b) to accept a payment plan tailored to your ability to pay
(c) to discount a bill
(d) to waive a debt
(e) to apply a credit to your account
(f) to match payments that you make
(g) to give you credit in exchange for payments that you make
(h) to put controls on you incurring charges e.g. spend controls
(i) to put restrictions on your service
(j) to remove non-essential service features, without any cost penalty to you
(k) to transfer you to a different product that better suits your circumstances
(l) to adjust internal threshold limits so that you are not disconnected
(m) to offer you a free non-automatic payment method.
8 You wish to access one or more of the assistance options you have ticked above.

Part 3: What financial hardship assistance do you request?

Please explain:

- what we can do to help you get your telco contract payments up to date;
(e.g. let you pay off arrears over two billing cycles)
- what you can do to get them up to date; and (e.g. pay instalments of $20 a week)
- for how long you feel you need help.
(e.g. three billing cycles)

(This is optional, but this information may speed up the application process.)

Part 4: Special instructions – sensitive circumstances

Your financial hardship situation might arise from domestic or family violence, an illness or other sensitive circumstances. Perhaps that means you can't easily take phone calls but you can call us back if we text you. Or perhaps it's best that we email you. If there's anything that you want us to know in order to deal with your application safely and sensitively, please let us know below.

(This is optional, but this information may help us to help you more safely and sensitively.)
